Expectations

All members of student organizations are expected to conduct themselves, both on and off campus, as responsible members of the academic community and to respect the rights of other citizens. It is agreed that our student organization shall be responsible for adhering to the below expectations as well as the rules applying to student organizations as outlined in the Student Rights, Rules, and Responsibilities Handbook. As an officer of this organization, I will make sure that my members abide by all rules and regulations.

Hazing: Hazing, both psychological and physical, which includes but is not limited to exacting, disagreeable work; harassment by banter, ridicule, or criticism; and the use of abusive or humiliating actions by way of initiation, is prohibited. The implied or express consent of any person shall not be a defense in any action brought under this section (University Rules of Conduct A-4, defined in RSA 631:7)

Nondiscrimination: The University of New Hampshire does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, veteran’s status, or handicap in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs or activities. (University Administrative Policies and Regulations 10.1)

Additionally, it is agreed that the office of student activities will be notified in writing of any changes of officers, name of organization, statement of purpose, or constitution.

You must provide TWO (2) signatures.
